

DEFEND ITS ACTION AGAINST CHARGES

HAMBURGER NACHRICHTEN ATTACKS CAPRIVI.

Newspapers Say the Secret Russian Treaty Was a Beneficial Arrangement and Helped the Dreibund—Caprivi Refused To Renew It—No Court Martial For Bismarck.

Hamburg, Nov. 2.—The Hamburger Nachrichten, the organ of Prince Bismarck, has another article on the subject of the Russo-German treaty, which terminated in 1890, and the disclosure of which by the Nachrichten has created such a sensation in Europe. This article is entitled "The Russian Treaty," and describes Prince Bismarck's agreement with Russia as a brilliant success of German statesmanship. The article then proceeds to say: "We do not admit that understanding with Russia had lost all value by the conclusion of the Dreibund treaty, nor will our allies share this opinion. Reconciliation has been noted with satisfaction that Germany always employed the Russian agreement to prevent and settle differences between Russia and Austria. Had Austria and Italy thought otherwise they would, during the reign of Emperor William I., have made representations on the subject."

"Among the motives of our exposure of the Russo-German relations, all of which we do not feel called upon to disclose, is the continual falsification of historical facts by the clerical and liberal, and even semi-official, press, with the dishonest purpose of making the government of William I. and of Bismarck responsible for all present evils, especially the rupture of the former favorable relations with Russia; a rupture which certainly does not improve Germany's position in Europe."

"Therefore, we publish the fact that the rupture was brought about during the administration of General Von Caprivi, through his unequal refusal of Russia's request for the continuance of the agreement. Against this authentic proof that the breaking of Russian ties occurred under Von Caprivi, the infamous calumny of Germany's policy under William I. cannot be proved."

"We should be deemed more correct had no official and documentary explanation of the truth been forthcoming, as in the case of the Elms dispatch, and we even now recommend this course."

No Court-Martial for Bismarck.
Berlin, Nov. 2.—There is the highest authority for stating that the court-martialing of Prince Bismarck, which the London papers announce as a fact, never was even contemplated by the German government. Moreover, it is positively asserted that the Czar himself encouraged Bismarck to make the revelations which he did in order to dampen French enthusiasm and to correct the Kaiser's English leanings.

Say Dr. Wetmore Is Innocent.
Holland, Mich., Nov. 2.—Dr. Judson D. Wetmore has been acknowledged innocent of the charge of complicity in the murder of Enos Lawrence, for which he is now confined in the county jail at Grand Haven. The wife of Lawrence and her brother, both of whom are serving time in Jackson prison as confessed murderers of Lawrence, have now confessed that the doctor, whom they implicated last month in the crime, is innocent of all knowledge of the murder, and that it was the woman's hope to lighten her own sentence by implicating him.

Miners Refuse the Scale.
Shelburn, Ind., Nov. 2.—The miners of the Shelburn Coal company refuse to accept the scale of prices as submitted by the company, which, the miners say, is 2 cents below the Star City prices. The following notice is posted in the company's office: "The company has decided to begin work Nov. 4 at the following prices: Loaders and shooters, 29 cents a ton for clean coal; machine runners and slack shovellers, 11 cents a ton; day labor the same as before. A reduction on house rent of 10 per cent."

Boys' Frank Results in Death.
Marion, Ind., Nov. 2.—M. A. Middleton, assistant chief of the fire department, was killed Saturday night as a result of a Halloween prank. He was on horseback on his way to a fire and was riding rapidly. Several boys threw corn at his horse, frightening the animal. Middleton was thrown, and his head struck against the railroad track. Rupture of a blood vessel in the brain was caused and death soon followed.

Narrow Escape of Hotel Guests.
Manistee, Mich., Nov. 2.—At an early hour Sunday morning flames burst from under the main stairway in the Franklin house and rapidly ate their way upwards, cutting off all communication with the street. Fifteen guests were compelled to jump from the second story in their night clothes. Many were severely burned. The fire department rendered prompt service and the damage will only amount to $1,200.

Spain Wants More Money.
Madrid, Nov. 2.—A credit of 53,000,000 pesetas (about $10,600,000) will shortly be sanctioned by the Spanish government for naval works.

KILLED ON A GRADE CROSSING

Two Young Women at Shirley, Mass., Meet Sudden Death.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 2.—Miss Grace Maynard and Miss Louise Scribner, two young ladies of Lancaster, while driving home from visiting a friend, were struck by the St. Louis express on the Fitchburg railroad at the crossing in Shirley at dusk Sunday. They drove up to the crossing just as a long freight train was passing, and, when it had got by, whipped their horse and were on the second track, when the express, going at the rate of sixty miles and hour, struck the carriage. Both young ladies were thrown a distance of seventy feet, striking outside the track, while their horse, which was killed outright, landed on top of the pilot of the locomotive. Miss Scribner was dead when help reached her. Miss Maynard was injured internally and expired at the Fitchburg hospital several hours after the accident.

ON THE VERGE OF ANARCHY.

Constantinople Seems Close to a General Smash-Up.

London, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Constantinople says: "It is rumored that the Armenians have decided to poison the water supply and the authorities are taking rigid precautions. Panics are of daily occurrence. The masses regard the increase in the price of bread as a sign of the approach of war. The bitterest strife exists among the ministers at Yildiz Kiosk. There are rumors of the arrests of ministers and officials. The sultan's only supporters now are Hassan Pasha and Rifa Pasha."

Charter of the Bank of France.

London, Nov. 2.—A Paris dispatch to the Times says: "M. Cocher, minister of finance, has submitted to the Chamber a bill to renew the privilege to the Bank of France, which has been constantly shelved as a dangerous question. The discussion will be violent, as on the one hand there is the question of defending an institution which is the soul of French finance, and on the other hand the Socialists will attack the bank's privilege as spoliation, benefiting the plutocracy at the expense of the masses. Stormy sittings are probable."

Fight With Pistols.

Jackson, Ky., Nov. 2.—At Three Forks City, on the Lexington and Eastern railway train, returning here from the Beattyville republican rally Saturday night, Jerry Cardwell, town marshal of Jackson, and John G. Hargis fought with pistols. Hargis was killed and Cardwell badly wounded. Hargis was on of ex-State Senator Hargis and Cardwell is the son of ex-Senator Thomas Cardwell. The cause of the quarrel is not definitely known.

Cuban Insurgents Routed.

Havana, Nov. 2.—Lieut.-Col. Fondovela secured information that the insurgents had a camp in the neighborhood of Cogimar, near Guanabacoa, which is just opposite the city of Havana. He went in pursuit of the insurgents and defeated them. The loss of the insurgents was fifty-two killed, while on the Spanish side the column lost one captain and fourteen privates wounded.

Fire in an Indiana Town.

Shelbyville, Ind., Nov. 2.—At 4 o'clock Sunday morning a fire supposed to be of incendiary origin was discovered in the meat market of S. S. Green in Manilla, a town of 1,500 inhabitants, east of here, and as there was no fire protection the buildings were at the mercy of the flames, which consumed those of one block. There was a loss of about $45,000; insurance, one-half that amount.

Gov. Atkinson Inaugurated.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 2.—Wm. Yates Atkinson was inaugurated the second time as governor of Georgia Saturday, amid ceremonies the most imposing seen in the state in a generation. ## THE CAMPAIGN OF 1896 IS NOW ENDED; CANDIDATES NOW AWAIT THE RESULT

J. B. FORAKER CALLS ON MAJOR M'KINLEY.

Saturday's Crowd at Canton the Greatest of the Campaign—Visiting Delegations Show Much Enthusiasm—The Candidate in Good Health—General News for Republicans.

Canton, O., Nov. 2.—The crowds assembled Saturday about the McKinley home exceeded any before seen. It was not only impossible for the women and children's organized parade to find room in the streets or the large McKinley lawn, but 2,400 school children had to be marched into the Whiting door-yard across Market street so as to be able to hear the Major's response to their greeting. Doorstep talking was again out of the question. Thousands could not get within hearing distance of

MR. BRYAN ENDS THE CAMPAIGN TODAY.

Appeals to Nebraska Voters in a Tour of the State—Pertinent Suggestions to Chairman Jones—Butler Is Confident of Success—Popocratic News.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 2.—Mr. Bryan has sent a dispatch to Senator Jones suggesting that he urge all members of silver clubs throughout the United States to give the entire day Tuesday, if possible, to the cause.

Sunday gave Mr. Bryan half a chance to snatch a moment's rest—something of which he was in sad need when he reached the boundary line of his own state Saturday night. It was his loafing and resting day, and the only departure from absolute privacy was his

Maj. McKinley's voice. Several women fainted, and had to be carried out of the crush.

The scenes of enthusiasm were increased by the thousands of flags carried by those who marched. At one time there was a life of counter-marching paraders two miles long. Superintendent H. A. Kennedy of the Cleveland, Canton & Southern railway, which brought in the largest single delegation of this campaign, and the Youngstown transportation committee said there were 11,500 tickets sold for that monster party. Delegations from Warren and nearby towns joined with them. Nine special trains and 117 coaches in all were required for the party.

Maj. McKinley, with Messrs. J. G. Butler and Roger Evans of Youngstown, reviewed the parade from the reviewing stand on the front of the lawn. Senator Foraker arrived from Akron about 5 o'clock. Mr. McKinley and the senator, arm-in-arm, mounted the speaking platform just as the dim twilight made necessary the lighting of the electric arc overhead. As the bright illumination made them plainly visible the great gathering again took up the cheering, and one of the most enthusiastic scenes of the eventful campaign was witnessed.

An early delegation was composed of tin-plate makers of Elwood, Ind., who arrived on a special train of nine coaches, and headed by the uniformed McKinley Marching club of Elwood, marched to the McKinley home. The crowd left the train with a round of cheers, which continued until the house entertainment at dinner by G. M. Hitchcock, publisher of the paper of which Mr. Bryan was formerly editor. This morning early the start was made for the interior of the state. Something over two dozen towns will be visited, and the day and the campaign will be ended in Omaha.

BRYAN'S TOUR THROUGH IOWA.

Greets Crowds at Every Station and Makes Eighteen Speeches.

Council Bluffs, Ia., Nov. 2.—William J. Bryan celebrated Friday day Saturday, and, with the exception of the work he is doing in Nebraska to-day, closed the memorable campaign for the presidency by a tour across the southern part of Iowa. He made eighteen speeches between sunrise and his time of retiring, beginning at Mount Pleasant, in the southeastern corner of the state, and ending at Council Bluffs. Three of his addresses were made at Ottumwa and four at Council Bluffs, and one each at Mount Pleasant, Albia, Chariton, Osceola, Creston, Corning, Villisca, Red Oak, Hastings, Malvern and Glenwood. Mr. Bryan's reception was in all cases cordial, and, taking the day as a whole, comparatively few gold emblems were displayed. At some of the stops there were practically no yellow badges, but in one or two instances gold was the predominating color.

Butler Says Bryan Will Win.

Washington, Nov. 2.—"The election of Bryan is an absolute certainty," said Chairman Butler of the national populist committee, in reviewing the campaign. "Bryan now has absolutely cer-

WE WANT MORE "CRIMES."

"The coinage law of 1873, was debated three years; it occupies 150 pages of the Congressional Record; hundreds of thousand of copies were sent broadcast through the land—yet popocrats say it was a 'conspiracy' and passed by stealth. They call it a 'crime,' but this was not learned until twenty years later. During those twenty years, the United States became the greatest nation on the face of the globe. If that was a 'crime,' in heaven's name let us have some more 'crimes.'" was reached. When Maj. McKinley appeared on the porch the crowd gave him a most enthusiastic demonstration. The party was introduced by James Swatman.

The Canton clubs participated in a demonstration in Akron in the afternoon and in the evening united with all the bands and drum corps in the city in the last parade in advance of election. It was preliminary to a meeting in the Tabernacle, at which the speakers were Thomas McDougal of Cincinnati and Congressman R. W. Taylor of this district. The parade was illuminated and was reviewed by Maj. McKinley at his home.

Mr. McKinley made addresses to the Cleveland mechanics, to a delegation from Waynesburg and Sandy town-

Church Congress at Norfolk, Va.
Norfolk, Va., Nov. 2.—Plans for the church congress insure the presence here Nov. 17-20 of Thomas Nelson Page, E. Lawrence Godkin, Hamilton W. Mable, the Rev. W. S. Rainsford, the Rev. John H. Elliott, Prof. A. V. W. Jackson, the Rev. Leighton Parks, George Wharton Pepper, the Rev. Percy S. Grant and the Rt.-Rev. Henry Y. Satterlee, the new bishop of Washington. This congress is largely composed of the aggressive low church element among Episcopalians, and is modeled after the church congress of England.

GONE TO FIGHT FOR CUBA.

Captain Moritz and a Dozen Arkansans in the Insurgent Army.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 2.—An interesting story has come to light in connection with the sudden mysterious departure from the city of Captain Frank Moritz, who until recently was employed as superintendent of a mine in Fulton county. Simultaneous with the departure of Moritz, twelve or fifteen miners who had been on intimate terms with him also mysteriously disappeared. It now develops that Moritz and his companions have gone to Cuba and are now in the insurgent army.

Moritz has fought for Cuba before. He was captured nearly a year ago with a number of other insurgents and imprisoned in Morro Castle. The entire party were sentenced to death and Moritz saw several of the number shot by Spanish soldiers. He claimed to be an American citizen and was finally released from prison, after being warned to leave Cuba never to return under penalty of death. Since coming to this state he has watched developments on the island and has returned to again fight for Cuban liberty.

CITY IN DANGER.

River in North China Threatens the Destruction of Tien Tsin.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 2.—C. Bernard, a merchant living in Shanghai, who recently arrived from the orient, reports that the river Pei Ho, in north China, has again overflowed its banks and transferred the surrounding plains above Tien Tsin into an extensive lake. Tien Tsin city is in great danger and trading interests in northern China have suffered an inestimable loss.

The current rushes like a mill race, and has carried away an embankment below the British settlement, driving farmers from their homes. The railroad is unable to cope with the trade of the port in its normal condition, and at present the exports and imports of five provinces are being carried up and down the river 45 miles in small vessels drawing three or four feet. Bernard says the Chinese government is doing absolutely nothing in the presence of the disaster, but seems content to rest quietly.

Question for Spain to Consider.

New York, Nov. 2.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says:

"The Globe, in an editorial, says that should the insurrection last much longer Spain would not lose much by quitting its hold of Cuba. With the island's two staple industries ruined almost past mending, the termination of the rebellion must endow Spain, which is already hovering on the brink of bankruptcy, with a veritable white elephant. In the presence of this dismal prospect the Spanish people would do well to consider the question whether Cuba is worth retaining. If it is, Spain should use all possible dispatch in accomplishing its pacification, either by concession or conquest."

Came to Descend Upon Havana.

Key West, Fla., Nov. 2.—A prominent Cuban resident of this city said that, without assuming the role of a prophet, he could positively announce that the City of Havana would be besieged by Maximo Gomez within the next sixty days. To that end, he said, Gomez and all the rebel forces were now marching westward toward the capital. This Cuban is in direct communication with the insurgent leaders on the field and is the local medium through whom all insurgent correspondence for the New York junta passes.

Man 119 Years of Age Drowns.

Warsaw, Ind., Nov. 2.—Late Saturday night Dennis Scantlin was drowned in the Winona Canal. He was a native of Ireland and claimed to be 119 years of age. He had been living alone for over two years in a small hut, furnished by the charity of a more prosperous fellow countryman. His wife died two years ago at a very advanced age. Scantlin was in all probability the oldest man in the state.

Fitzsimmons Goes West.

New York, Nov. 2.—Bob Fitzsimmons, accompanied by his manager, Martin Julian, left for San Francisco, Saturday afternoon, where he will meet Tom Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, in a ten-round bout for a purse of $10,000, offered by the California club, on Tuesday night, Dec. 8. Fitzsimmons said he had not heard from Corbett yet.

Say Students Cannot Vote.

Sioux City, Iowa, Nov. 2.—The students at the South Dakota state university, at Vermillion, have been notified by citizens that they cannot vote there, the students having demoralized municipal affairs in the past. The students will insist on voting, and trouble is anticipated at the polls.

HIS HAND TORN OFF BY CORN SHREDDER

BELOIT MAN SERIOUSLY HURT TODAY.

Other Bad Accidents at the Line City—Father of Congressman Sauerherring Hurt at Mayville—Stranger Gives Himself Up at Baraboo, Saying He Killed a Man.

Mayville, Wis., Nov. 1.—Special—Rudolph Sauerherring, one of the oldest residents here, fell down a small flight of stairs breaking two ribs and receiving internal injuries. Mr. Sauerherring is the father of Congressman Sauerherring of the Second district.

Says He Committed Murder.

Baraboo, Wis., Nov. 1.—[Special]—James Casey gave himself up to the police at Merrimac, and is now in jail here. He says he murdered a man with a piece of coal by hitting him on the head. The sheriff will investigate the story.

AS TO BANK DIRECTORS.

May Be Held Liable for the President's Looting Operations.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 2.—A suit of more than usual interest to bankers has been submitted in the United States court. It is that of Robert T. Gibbons, receiver of the City National bank of Greenville, against Henry N. Anderson and John J. Foster, directors.

Leroy Moore was president of the bank. When it failed, in June, 1893, he was found to be a debtor to the amount of $175,000, or for three and a half times the total capital of the bank. In October, 1892, his indebtedness, direct and as indorser, was $121,000, and the comptroller of the treasury ordered a curtailment. The bank was managed entirely by Moore, and the directors continued to let him have his own way, and he increased his liability by $54,000 before the failure.

The suit is to determine whether the directors can be held financially responsible for their neglect of duty in permitting Moore to continue his looting operations. Some of the testimony adduced, showing Moore's methods, is sensational in its nature.

KILLED PEARL BRYAN.

Walling Says Jackson Is the Man Who Cut Off the Girl's Head.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 2.—Signs are pointing to a confession by Jackson and Walling, or, at least, to a getting at the truth of the murder of Pearl Bryan. For two weeks Jackson and Walling have been kept in separate cells and a bitterness is growing up between them. Saturday Walling said to Turnkey Maurer: "Why should I be punished for a crime I did not commit? I did not murder Pearl Bryan. Jackson is the man who cut her head off." Maurer asked why he had not so testified, but Walling declined to answer.

Attempt to Rob a Postoffice.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Nov. 2.—A daring attempt was made early Sunday morning to rob the postoffice at Plymouth. The door of the big safe was blown off with such force that it shook the surrounding buildings. Persons living in the vicinity thought an earthquake had occurred and they hastily dressed and came out on the streets. Smoke was seen coming from the postoffice and the fire department was called out. It was found that the sparks from the powder had set fire to the mail bags. The flames were soon extinguished. Postmaster Callary upon his arrival found all the valuables in the safe untouched. The robbers evidently were scared at the loud report and fled.

More Floods on the Rhone.

Paris, Nov. 2.—Telegrams received from the departments bring news of further floods and of alarming rise in the rivers. Enormous damage to property has been done, but no fatality has yet been reported. The river Seine is still rising, and is at the flood stage. The authorities have dispatched to Comps and to Vallabregues the artillery wagons from Nimes in order to assist in the work of relief. The river Rhone has burst its banks at Lausson, which is now isolated. The only communication through considerable districts is by boat. Troops have left Avignon to assist in repairing the broken banks of the Rhone.

Worried Over the Election.

London, Nov. 2.—The rate of discount has been steady, and the belief that the stringency is only temporary prevents a further advance. Mr. McKinley's election, which is thought here to be assured, is counted upon to bring a reflux of gold from America. The Bank of England has borrowed about £2,000,000 from the market. There is some discontent over the bank's charging 4½ per cent in view of the better prospect. It is supposed that the directors anticipate an outflow of gold to Austria or Russia.

JEFFRIS' HOT SHOT
FIRED THE CROWDTHE JANESVILLE ATTORNEY
SPOKE SATURDAY NIGHT.

Made One of the Most Effective Addresses of the Campaign at the Myers Grand—Pleads for National Honor, and a "Straight Vote" for Prosperity.

M. G. Jeffris made one of the most effective speeches of the campaign at Myers Grand, Saturday night. For two hours he advocated the cause of honest money and good government, and the republican nominees, national, state, legislative and county, and at the end of that time the audience seemed loth to leave. An immense crowd greeted the eloquent Janesville man, and he was frequently applauded to the echo. Among those who sat on the stage were:

Judge J. W. Sale,
E. D. McGowan,
C. K. Church,

D. C. Burdick,
A. E. Bingham.

Alderman S. B. Heddles was the chairman, and he introduced Mr. Jeffris with a few well turned sentences.

Alderman Heddles was given a round of applause as he ceased speaking. He said:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN—It affords me great pleasure to have the honor of presenting to you for your speaker tonight a gentleman who needs no introduction to the citizens of Janesville. A gentleman whom we all know to be true to the principles of the grandest party that ever represented the people of the greatest nation on earth: one who never falters nor shrinks from a duty, and who has always been ready to contribute his valuable services to the cause of maintaining a good and sound government; a gentleman who always makes glad his audience; and through the kindness of the state central committee, we have with us our Boy tonight.

Ladies and gentlemen, I take pleasure in introducing to you Hon. Malcolm G. Jeffris.

Mr. Jeffris began his address by saying that he understood that the present rally would close the campaign as far as republican arguments were concerned. He referred to the trouble at the depot, and said that he would not say that either the republicans or the democrats were to blame. He made a plea for honest neighborly methods in closing the great fight, so that no scars should remain after the battle was over.

Tariff Still an Issue

The tariff question was still an issue he said, but democrats who opposed the free silver idea should not stop for that. No democrat ever lost anything because of a protective tariff, and they could lose nothing by trying it again.

The republicans, he insisted, wanted to make coats for Rock county people out of wool from Rock county sheep, in Rock county mills, and when Major McKinley was elected by the largest majority ever given a presidential candidate, that line would be carried out.

Mr. Bryan, he said, had been repudiated by all the prominent men, and the great mass of the democratic party. The story of the frogs—where one frog made so much noise that the farmer who heard him wanted to sell the hotel keeper three car loads of frogs legs, thinking there was that number to be captured in the meadow—served to illustrate the fact that Bryan stood alone, but made noise enough to indicate that he had a large following.

Democrats Authorized to Bolt

Democrats had been given authority to bolt by Mr. Bryan himself, when he declared that if the democratic party had not declared for silver, he should have left the democratic party. Bryan voted for Weaver four years ago, and had always been a populist. It was ridiculous for Mr. Bryan to tell Dr. Whiting—who had voted the democratic ticket before the boy orator was born—that if he came back to the democratic party, "he must come in sackcloth and ashes." The same was true of General Bragg, who had been a democrat almost before Mr. Bryan's mother was born.

Democrats did not have to come to the republican party in sackcloth and ashes. They would get the right hand of fellowship, the fatted calf would be killed, and they would find themselves in mighty good company. There was nothing democratic about the populists who had stolen the democratic party. Senator Palmer led real democrats, and he apologized for using the name of democracy, in referring to the populists, but was compelled to do so because they had stolen the name also.

In putting down these lawbreakers, not the strikers, for they were not the guilty ones—Grover Cleveland did what he had sworn to do, what he should have done and what he was right in doing. Gen. Bragg once said of Grover Cleveland: "we can almost love him for the enemies he has made" and the republicans were now in the same position.

The Financial Issue.

Taking up the financial side of the discussion, he said that Bryan was crying out that there was not money enough in the country. Four years ago the republicans were paying off the public debt, and putting a surplus in the treasury, but no such thing had been heard of since President Cleveland had been in power, and we were now called upon to confront a money question. There had been no shortage of money until President Cleveland came into power, and factories closed down and industries were paralyzed. The people had been fooled with free trade and they now wanted to fool them with free silver.

The United States now had more money in circulation than any other country in the world except France, but people were holding onto it until this question was settled. France had more money per capita than the United States, but the United States had one hundred millions more money in the aggregate than France. Bryan says: "We must have cheap money."

THE REPUBLICAN IDEA.

"The republican party wants coats for Rock county men, made from the wool of Rock county sheep, in Rock county mills. When William McKinley is elected by the largest majority ever given a presidential candidate, the republican party will carry out that idea."—M. G. JEFFRIS.

The republicans say: "No, we want good money, such as we have had for twenty years, and with which we have become the greatest nation on the face of the globe." The American people had the best currency in the world—and the republican party proposed to keep it so.

Bryan Gave No Reasons.

Mr. Bryan, in all his speeches, had not given a single reason for making a change. He had often said that "we must have the money of the people." The great banks, the great newspapers, the great merchants and the great financiers were against Bryan—therefore he said "you and I and the people want it!" The "people," Mr. Jeffris continued, were the American citizens. There were only two kinds of people in the United States—Americans, and people who did not belong here. There are no other classes here, he insisted, and all were equal.

Mr. Bryan, he said, was not a fit man for president. While Mr. Bryan was in Indiana, a railroad company suspended business in order that three hundred or four hundred of the employees might go and hear his speech. Many of these men—in fact most of them—wore McKinley pins, or gold ribbons. Bryan said: "That is right, boys, wear a McKinley pin, wear a gold ribbon, carry a McKinley torch, march in a McKinley parade, cheer for McKinley, BUT ON ELECTION DAY, GO INTO THE VOTING BOOTH (LIKE A SNEAK) AND MARK YOUR BALLOT FOR ME!"

"He said to them, in substance," declared Mr. Jeffris, when the cheering stopped, "don't be a man! Be a SNEAK! Don't be honest! Be a SNEAK!"

The Farmers Interest.

Turning to the farmer's interest in the issue, Mr. Jeffris said that we all wanted anything that would better the condition of the farmer, and advised them, when oats only brought 12 cents a bushel, to be sure and get one hundred cent dollars in payment, and not fifty cent dollars. The prices of farm products had gone down, because production had increased, while owing to the result of tariff tinkering, the consumption of all products had decreased. All industries had been similarly affected, and the farmer was not the only sufferer. Street cars were no longer drawn by horses, and threshing machines were now driven by steam. There were fewer horses to eat the oats the farmer raised, and oats had gone down. The production of corn had doubled in twenty years, while the consumption had increased only one-half, hence corn had gone down. Improved machinery and improved methods had enabled the farmer to raise more grain, while hard times had cut the consumption. The only way to bring prosperity back, was to build up the industries; foster foreign markets under the reciprocity clause of the McKinley law, and thus stimulate the consumption. Start the Janesville cotton mill as it used to run under a protective tariff; start the machinery of the Janesville Machine Company, which had never been silent before in the history of the concern, and Rock county farmers would get immediate benefits therefrom.

"Farmers," he said, "take no more chances. Keep the party in power that has always fostered industries, thus making a market for the farmer's produce."

Schilling's Sausage Money.

"Bob Schilling says that anything that the government stamps as a dollar, is a dollar," Mr. Jeffris continued. "He says that if the government stamped a piece of bologna sausage 'one dollar,' it would be one dollar. 'And,' Mr. Jeffris continued, 'there is just as much reason in Schilling's proposition, as there is in Bryan's, and a blame sight more meat!'"

WHAT THE PASTORS
TOLD THEIR FLOCKSREV. E. H. PENCE TALKS OF
"CHRISTIAN CURRENCY."

Rev. V. E. Southworth Speaks of the Possibilities of Higher Civilization—Rev. Dr. Hodge's Advice to the Baptists—Christian Endeavor Work—Other Church Notes.

The subject of Rev. Mr. Pence's sermon, at the Presbyterian church, yesterday morning, was "Christian Currency," and he took for his text, James, 5:3, "Your gold and silver are cankered, and the rust of them shall be a witness against you." James refers here to the capital that is idle. The most prosperous country is not necessarily the one with the largest bulk of money, but the one in which what money there is, is most actively circulated. And the strongest church is not necessarily the one with the most good people, but the one in which the good people are most active, and most actively good. No church is weak if it is active—if every man, woman and child in it is active. People are not led to Christianity, except as they find it through a church. The church is God's chosen method of saving people. An open obligation, a confession, the restraint of a pledge is all that will ever save some people. Christian currency is Christian activity. The powers for good we let lie undeveloped, and the opportunities we selfishly neglect are the rust which will witness against us on the judgment day—that witness against us now. Time was when our usefulness was like burnished gold. But the surface is scummed over now with deadly carelessness. May there quickly come to the world a return to that day when all the world shall know of the latent wealth, the idle capital of christian currency.

The Boys' Brigade held a very interesting meeting, and learned some practical lessons regarding "rowdiness." A deep spiritual feeling pervaded the Christian Endeavor meeting. Seven new active and three associate members were added to the roll. The monthly business meeting and social will be held Friday evening at the home of the Misses Kirk, Glen street. The Local Union will receive election returns Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A.

POSSIBILITIES OF CIVILIZATION.

Rev. V. E. Southworth Speaks on That Theme at All Souls Church.

At the People's church, yesterday, the vital question of the Possibilities of the Higher Civilization, was discussed by the pastor. In conclusion Rev. Mr. Southworth said in part:

"I believe in civilization, and I require no further creed."

But it must be the civilization of the heart and of the head. In the past the world has been cursed by two overwhelming disasters: First, the supremacy of the priest; the exaltation of superstition; the stubborn conservatism of the priestly class, calling down the curses of heaven upon the heads of those who dared to call myths "myths," and facts "facts;" and second, the world has been cursed by the sword—militarism, the spirit of war, and the supremacy of armies and navies, the exaltation of brute force.

Truly superstition and the sword have been the two great stumbling blocks in the path of human progress. But thanks to the patient tuition of experience they are fast losing their influence over human affairs. The priest and the soldier do not cut so wide a swath as they did. They have their place, but it is limited, and narrow.

Industrial and commercial supremacy were now sought, he said in continuing, but he believed that an age of kindness and humanity was coming. The greatest civilization of the century was beginning to dawn. We were going to grow weary of inventing and devising and accumulating, he insisted, and the printing press, the public schools, and the libraries were going to receive more consideration. Patience and consideration were being developed. Co-operation and arbitration were becoming more practicable. Men were beginning to see that the thriving of one at the expense of another, was only a temporary benefit at best.

Next Sunday Rev. Southworth will speak on "John Ruskin, the Friend of the Laborers." The lecture will be preceded by a pulpit editorial on "The Majority and the Minority; What They Owe to Each Other."

Rev. Dr. Hodge Preaches Both Morning and Evening—Other Notes

Dr. Hodge took for his morning text Luke 12:8-9, "Confessing Christ" being his subject. Romans 10:1 was the text of the evening sermon. At the communion service three were

JANESVILLE MEN AT ROCKFORD

[Rockford Register-Gazette.]

Go to Janesville Monday night. ALL Rockford should go to Janesville next Monday night.

The commercial travelers will go to Janesville in a body Monday night.

AURORA, Janesville and Beloit will be remembered by Rockford republicans in future campaigns.

REMEMBER Janesville on Monday evening. Rockford should return the compliment paid her by the visit of last evening.

THE Y. M. C. A. band of Janesville came next, leading five hundred members of the Janesville Sound Money Railway Men's club, and the Rock county Republican club. No division in the procession made a finer showing than the boys from the Bower City, and all Rockford should return the compliment by attending the closing of the campaign at Janesville Monday evening.

FLIP-FLOP DESCENDS TO ABUSE.

Having No Arguments to Use, It Villifies a Reputable Man.

The Flip-Flop, being unable to place the responsibility for Friday night's trouble on any republican's shoulders, descends to personal abuse. Harry A. Born was the target at which the wholly uncalled for torrent was directed, and his friends are highly indignant. Abuse and villification are not arguments, and carry no weight with intelligent people. The popocrat who started the fight, might be severely criticised, but his personality does not enter into his political existence. The harsh attack on Mr. Born, and the publication of charges that are ridiculous does not do the Flip-Flop credit, nor advance the cause that it espoused after having denounced it for two years in unmeasured terms.

MISSIONARY MAY HAVE TO LEAVE

Miss Phoebe Cull May Be Compelled to Drop Turkish Work.

Miss Phoebe Cull, formerly of Rock county, an aunt of Mrs. J. W. St. John, of this city, has been a missionary in Turkey during the past twenty-five years, and writes to friends that she may soon be compelled to leave that country in order that her life may be safe. Miss Cull has been at work under the management of the American Board of Missions, in the vicinity of Constantinople, but of late she has been obliged to leave her work and take refuge in the city.

HALLOWE'EN PRANKS WERE PLENTY

Police Order Had the Desired Effect, However, and Prevented Disorder

Hallowe'en pranks of a mild nature were played Saturday night, and the warnings given out by the police seemed to have the desired effect. Aside from the removal of sidewalk, horse blocks, the ringing of door bells, and the usual bean throwing, nothing of a disorderly nature has been reported.

BELOIT PASTOR GOES TO CHICAGO

The Rev. A. W. Runyon of the Line City Baptist Church

Beloit, Wis., Nov. 1—The Rev. A. W. Runyon today resigned as pastor of the Baptist church, to accept the call of the Normal Park church, Chicago. He has been here three years, during which many members have been added, and improvements to the edifice made. The society is unanimous for his retention. He came from California to Beloit.

PAID $200 TO HEAR BRYAN SPEAK.

Local Popocrats Had to Pay to Get the Candidate Here.

It is said that the Janesville populists paid $200 for the pleasure of hearing Bryan speak.

JEFFRIS' HOT SHOT FIRED THE CROWD

[laughter and applause.] The republicans favored free coinage, he said, but they wanted 100 cents worth of silver in the silver dollar, and 100 cents worth of sausage in the sausage dollar.

More confidence, not more money, was what was needed. Mary Ellen Lease's statement that "there was not gold enough in the whole world to pay the debt of South Dakota," was false. Plenty of gold was in circulation up to the time Bryan was nominated. Then it was locked up, to stay under lock and key, until the owners were sure that when they paid it out, that they would get 100 cent dollars back in place of it.

Gold Had Gone Down

Gold had not appreciated. Labor was the only standard by which to measure values, and measured by this standard—the pay for a day's work—gold had gone down steadily. A laborer could now earn twice as much gold in the same time as he could twenty years ago. Silver had gone down faster, because there was more produced. It had not been demonetized. The government had stopped the coinage of dollars in 1873, only be-

SHE HAS SEEN EIGHTY SUMMERS

Mrs. Emeline Heimstreet Congratulated on Passing the Eightieth Mile-Stone.

Mrs. Emeline Heimstreet, mother of E. B. Heimstreet, celebrated her eightieth birthday in Lansingburg, N. Y., a few days ago. The Troy Advocate says:

"Mrs. Emeline Heimstreet acquired the dignities of octogenarianism yesterday, and the event was duly celebrated at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holmes, with whom she resides. Mrs. Nichols, a lovable 'girl friend,' who is two years younger, and a frequent visitor, and Mrs. Kimball, another sweet-faced septuagenarian neighbor of noble character and superior culture, were present. A superb 'spread' was prepared for the hearty and happy ladies, illuminated by eighty miniature candles cast and artistically arranged by Grandson Henry. Great grandson Harold Robertson, of Oanajoharie, was also much in evidence during the progress of the festivities. Miss Angle Evers, one of the most cultivated, efficient and prepossessing teachers of which the 'burgh' can boast, entertained the venerable assemblage by a delightful description of Norwegian travels, and she vivified the impromptu lecture by exhibiting and explaining numerous pictures of that cold country. It is needless to add that Mrs. Heimstreet was the recipient of warm congratulations and in every sense the heroine of the occasion, to 1300—Benvenuto Cellini, sculptor, born in Florence; died 1570.

1609—Sir Matthew Hale, eminent English Judge, born; died 1676.
1755—Awful earthquake in western Europe and Africa; Lisbon destroyed, with 50,000 lives.
1787—Antonio Canova, sculptor, born; died 1822.
1790—Alexander Cruden, compiler of the Bible Concordance, died; born 1701. The famous Concordance of the Holy Scripture was completed and published in 1737. It was dedicated to the queen, but she died soon after its presentation, and the author received nothing in way of royal remuneration. While engaged in the work of compiling Cruden sustained himself as a bookseller and a corrector for the press.
1791—Lydia Huntley Sigourney, American authoress, born; died 1865.
1898—Steamship City of Alexandria wrecked on Caimar, Cuba; 35 people drowned.

HARD TIMES—WHY?

Mr. Bryan tried to convince his Janesville audience that hard times and financial depression have arisen from the scarcity of currency.

Is this true?

Mr. Bryan and every man of rudimentary intelligence should know better.

Hard times have come from free trade agitation and consequent loss of confidence in manufacturing enterprises.

Has the scarcity of currency anything to do with the scarcity of capital for manufacturing enterprises?

It has not. There is as much currency in the country as ever and an abundant supply for all demands. Free trade agitation has stopped American industries thrown laborers out of work, led to the withdrawal of foreign work and home capital all kinds of business enterprises and has thus produced the business depression and hard times from which we are suffering.

Mr. Bryan's claim is that currency is scarce and money is dear, because money was demonetized in 1873. Is this true?

Silver was not then demonetized at all for the law of that year made no change but merely recognized a condition of affairs that had existed before.

Mr. Bryan's declaration that an increase of currency would supply more money for business enterprises is a fit climax to such a series of absurdities. In so stating Mr. Bryan makes no distinction between money as used to express currency or coin, and "money" as used to express capital or property. The difference is vital and important. Capital is property which can be used in business, whether in the form of merchandise, stocks, notes, deposits in banks, or currency. Currency may be plenty and yet capital may be scarce, because the owners of property will not risk their property in business enterprises, when there is a chance of loss. This has been the case since free trade agitation began; but capital was freely invested, loans were freely made and prosperity was correspondingly great under a protective tariff, and before Colorado and Montana repudiationists put their agents at work.

BUSHELS AND DOLLARS.

If thirty pounds of wheat made a bushel would the farmer have any more wheat or could he buy any more supplies with the proceeds of his crop?

If 50 cents were called a dollar would a farmer's crop bring him any more of the things he needs than he gets now?

This country has no room for a political party which seeks votes by preaching sedition. That there are rich and poor in this country, is of course, true; but the fact known to all men, that nine out of every ten rich men started in life without money is unanswerable argument showing that there is no impassable chasm between the rich and the poor.

Secretary Francis says Bryan's success would be followed by "commercial disaster, financial misery, social discontent and national dishonor."

which is true enough, but as long as Bryan isn't going to succeed there is no occasion for anybody to worry over it.

Mr. Bryan is the first man who has had the gall to publicly say it is wrong for the owners of a controlling interest in a stock company to elect the officers and direct the policy of their own property. Surely Mr. Bryan must be losing his senses.

That attack upon the members of the republican club was nothing more than the logical outcome of the doctrine of Altgeldism, anarchy and riot that has been preached by Mr. Bryan and the other popocratic orators for two months.

On the morning of November 4, Major McKinley can use the handsome mirror presented to him by the Pennsylvania glass workers to ascertain how a man looks just after he has been elected president.

What rot it is to talk, as Bryan does about legislation that will benefit the employee without benefiting the employer. A moment's thought will show it to be an impossibility.

Tom Watson desires it to be distinctly understood that he thinks Seward is largely responsible for Bryan's defeat.

"Horizontal Bill" Morrison is only half a bolter; he can stand Bryan, but not Altgeld, which is certainly queer.

Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, says he has been too "busy" to make Bryan speeches. Next!

AMONG the State University students who saw the Beloit football game and spent Sunday in the city were Fred Biskely, Frank McNamara, Sam Echlin, Charles Sutherland, George Buchholz, Ed Williamson, Eugene Noyes, Ed Peterson, Bernard Palmer, Chester Brewer, Wallace McGregor, Perry Brown, Frank Vankirk, Jacob Fisher, John Fisher and George Brownell.

THE Caledonian society enjoyed a Halloween social at the society's rooms Saturday evening. Remarks were made by President Galbraith, and Rev. E. H. Pence, while Misses Marie Hamilton, Flossie McGregor, Maggie Hamilton, Jennie Eddington, Alice Marble, and Messrs. George Hatch and George Dower took part in the program.

BE patriotic and at the same time get as good flour as is made in Pearl White and Vienna brands, both made at home. Ask your grocer or get them at the mill. J. M. Shackleton.

BELOIT papers unknowingly did John F. Sweeney an injustice in speaking of the trouble at the depot Friday night. Mr. Sweeney took no part in the trouble, other than to try and stop the disturbance, and protect F. S. Winslow and the flag, as all Janesville people know. The course adopted by Mr. Sweeney, Sheriff Appleby, Chief Acheson and Officers Brown and Hogan is commended by all.

KEEP your children well and warmly dressed by buying good clothing for them. Our little suits and reefer at $1 to $6 are honestly put together. T. J. Zeigler.

GO AND VOTE EARLY; THEN WORK HARD

REPUBLICANS SHOULD SEE THAT ALL CAST BALLOTS.

Citizens Should Vote on Their Own Convictions, as the Ballots Will Establish the Policy of Government for Four Years—The "Constitutional Amendment."

Tomorrow the voters of the United States will establish the policy of the government for the next four years. The responsibility of the ballot this year is a grave one. Think well before you put your ticket in the box. Do nothing blindly but find a reason in what you do. You may think that your "one vote makes no difference" but it does. There are thousands of people in the United States who are thinking the same thing at the same time. Decide which ticket is the one to be voted; cast the ballot, and go away so that some other man may do the same.

Every republican owes to himself and his party, to see that every voter votes. The man who is "checking" the names of the men as they vote and keeping track of those who have not voted, should be aided by all good citizens that the vote cast may be large and the result decisive. Cast your own vote early and devote the rest of the time to seeing that other voters do their duty.

Will Help in the Count.

The getting of the ballots in early means a saving of time in learning the result. Do not wait, but vote as early as you can. The election officers will have much work to do, and all people should aid them by getting the votes in as early as possible.

The polls will open at six o'clock in the morning, and will remain open until seven o'clock in the evening. These hours give ample time to all. Public proclamations of both the opening and closing of the polls, will be made by one of the inspectors of the election.

By simply placing a cross at the head of the ticket, a vote is registered for all the men whose names appear in that column. When you want to "scratch" a ticket, you must mark the names of individuals for whom you wish to vote.

But one person can occupy the booth at a time, unless the voter asks assistance in preparing his ballot—and five minutes only is allowed in which to mark the ticket. If you spoil your ballot, or make a mistake, return it to the office and get another. The law allows you to use these ballots, if necessary.

The Gazette will furnish blanks for the canvassing of the vote, at all the precincts in the city, and hopes that when the result is known that a blank ticket be filled out and sent to the office.

The Republican Ticket.

The republican ticket is printed in the fourth, or center column, on the ballot. The democratic ticket is in the first column, the peoples in the second column, the prohibition in the third column, the republican in the fourth column, the gold democrat in the fifth column, the individual nominations in the seventh and eighth columns.

Place a cross at the top of the republican ticket, and you will vote for:

President—William McKinley.
Vice President—Garrett A. Hobart.
Secretary—Edward Scofield.
Lieutenant Governor—Judge Emil Baensch.
Governor of State—Henry Casson.
Tate Treasurer—S. A. Peterson.
Attorney General—W. H. Mylrea.
State Superintendent—John S. Emery.
Railroad Commissioner—D. J. McKenzie.
Insurance Commissioner—W. A. Fricke.
Congressman—Henry A. Cooper.
State Senator—John M. Whitehead.
Assemblyman—William C. Wheeler.
Sheriff—Theodore L. Acheson.
County Clerk—W. J. McIntyre.
County Treasurer—A. C. Thorpe.
Register of Deeds—O. D. Rowe.
District Attorney—W. A. Jackson.
Clerk of the Court—T. W. Goldin.
County Surveyor—O. G. Bleedorn.
Coroner—Max Fleming.
School Supt., First District—William Ross.
Second District—David Thorne.

The Amendment Question.

The "constitutional amendment" on the ballot, is not a question of party policy. Stated in a few words, the amendment provides for power to increase the salary of the state superintendent of public instruction above $1,200 and traveling expenses.

On a separate ballot you will find the name of L. F. Patten, republican candidate for justice of the peace, and although there is no opposition to the election of Mr. Patten, you should vote for him just the same.

Vote early.

And see that others do.

Vote the republican ticket.

And see that others do.

Swearing in Voters.

Voters who have not registered can swear in their votes, if two free holders support their affidavit.

ROCKFORD will send six hundred people to Janesville to take part in tonight's honest money demonstration. Janesville should not be outdone so all people who believe in honest money should get in line.

OFFICER JOHN BROWN has been warmly complimented by men of all parties for the excellent judgment shown and good work done in helping to quell Friday night's disturbance. Janesville's policemen and peace officers all did their duty manfully.

A big audience greeted J. Randall Brown, the mind reader, at the Myers Grand, Sunday night. Mr. Brown possesses a wonderful power, and many of his tests are truly marvelous. The exhibition of mental telegraphy was almost beyond comprehension. He was assisted by Lulu May Brown, Mr. Brown is certainly wonderfully endowed, and his entertainment, while thoroughly scientific, is very interesting. He will leave soon, on a trip through the large cities of the United States. He resides at Minneapolis.

BIG PARADE TO END LOCAL CAMPAIGN

POT AT 8:10 O'CLOCK

Sound Money Men Will Receive the Rockford Clubs, and the United Forces Will Move Through the City—E. R. Hicks To Be the Speaker.

Rockford republicans five hundred strong will be in the city tonight.

Arrangements have been made to keep stores lighted and open all along the line of march.

The Rockford train gets in at 8:10 and the marching club will leave headquarters opposite the postoffice at 7:45 and march to the depot to meet them.

Arriving at the depot the Janesville club will form on Wall street and await the arrival of the train.

The Railroad Men's Sound Money club will meet at the C. M. & St. P. freight depot. A big representation is assured. President Hinrichs is very enthusiastic over the matter and has urged a full turnout.

B. H. Baldwin will be marshal of the parade and Dr. James Gibson and Charles Blay assistant marshals.

The line of march will be: Academy to Milwaukee; to Main; to South Second; to East; to Prospect; to Main; to Milwaukee; to the club rooms and disperse.

All republicans are urged to report at club headquarters and join in the demonstration.

At the close of the parade E. R. Hicks, of Oshkosh, will address the sound money forces at Myers Grand. Mr. Hicks is one of the best speakers on the stump this year.

MR. WHITEHEAD AND WHEELER

The Senatorial Candidate Talks of the Law for Cyclers.

A Gazette reporter today called the attention of Mr. Whitehead, candidate for state senator, to the canvass of legislative candidates by the wheelmen, reported in the Sunday Sentinel, and asked whether he had made any pledge with reference to the proposed legislation. He stated that he had received the circular referred to in the Sentinel, and had promised to give the matter careful attention if he were elected and called upon to act. He said that in this case, as in all others when pledges, touching either men or measures had been demanded, he had declined to make a pledge, but as to the merits of the claim of the wheelmen that railroad companies in Wisconsin should either be willing or required to do what they are willing or required to do in other states, in reference to the transportation of wheels as baggage, he was free to say that he thought their claim a reasonable one.

Mr. Whitehead has just returned from Jefferson county, where he has spent the past two weeks in a school campaign. He reports great interest and that Jefferson county republicans have great hope of carrying the county for the whole republican ticket. The Spooner meeting which closed the campaign on Saturday evening, was the largest and most enthusiastic of the whole campaign and made a deep impression. The democrats evidently feel the effects of the energetic campaign of the republicans for they have worked with the energy of desperation.

ELECTION NOTICE.

TO THE ELECTORS OF ROCK COUNTY:

Notice is hereby given that a general election is to be held in the several towns, wards and election precincts in the county of Rock, on the third day of November, 1896, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given opposite the name of the office and under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its appropriate column and the questions submitted to a vote are stated below;

OFFICE OF COUNTY CLERK, }
October 22, 1896.

INFORMATION TO VOTERS

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names and or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter, if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked, and having no other mark, will be counted for all of the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased, and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased or pasted over a printed name. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties, he should make a cross mark, X after the name of each candidate he does desire to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled, it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot, can be taken into the booth, and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any other person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked, it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box, and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer, that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability, he is unable to mark his ballot, can have the assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

W. J. MCINTYRE, County Clerk.

If you desire to vote an entire party ticket, make a cross mark in the square under party designation at the head of the ballot. If you desire to vote for all the ticket, except particular persons, erase their names, or mark opposite the names of the candidate you desire to vote for in another column, if it be there, or write in the name you wish to vote for. If you desire to vote for candidates on different tickets, erase the names of the candidates you do not wish to vote for and make a cross (X) opposite and after the name of the candidate you desire to vote for, or write his name in the blank space under the name erased.

OLD-FASHIONED SAVINGS BANK

Where the Hoards of Our Grandmothers Used to Be Kept.

The stocking bank of our grandmothers is not yet obsolete in the country districts, and the daily papers give frequent accounts of its insecurity. Safes are not burglar proof, either, and the occasional bank robberies and failures, too, keep alive the fondness of women for searching for queer hiding places for their savings. Some of the old-time "banks" showed considerable ingenuity in their construction or covering. An old lady lives in a New Hampshire town that had a set of large stationary drawers topped by cupboards built into one of her huge closets. The lower drawer, instead of resting directly on the floor, ran on grooves perhaps two inches above it. She would pull out this lower drawer, place her jewel cases in the space left below, and then push in the drawer, which she kept filled with linen. Equally shrewd was an Ohio woman, who, whenever she went out, put her money and jewelry in the coal scuttle, covering them up carefully with several layers of coal. This might have proved a rather risky experiment in the winter months, when the fire had to be fed, but their owner felt that no burglar would ever think of looking there. A favorite hiding place for money, especially for bills of large denominations, has always been the big family Bible and the unbridged dictionary. This is still common in rural places. So is the practice of sticking money snugly away under a corner of a carpet, particularly under some large piece of furniture. This is a method that has much to commend it. Tea caddies and sugar bowls make excellent temporary safes. Another hiding place is the old-fashioned country clock, which is almost historic as a spot for tucking away little bundles of valuables. It is safe to say that the number of women who put away jewelry in pocketbooks under a mattress for safe keeping, afterward carefully smoothing the bed down, can be numbered by the thousands. The pocket of an old dress that hangs in an unconcealed way in a closet is regarded by many women as one of the safest places imaginable for spare rings, brooches and bracelets, and even for a pocketbook. Old shoes, standing in their proper place beside new ones, are likewise much esteemed for a great deal can be put down in their toes without giving the slightest evidence of the value therein.—Boston Traveler.

WESTERN FARMING.

It Is Not a Losing Business When Conducted on Proper Principles.

From the Northwest Magazine. The pessimistic statement heard so often that farming is a losing business at the present price of wheat, is disproved by the fact that thousands of new farms are opened every year in the northwest. A steady migration of farmers is coming into Minnesota all the time. North Dakota has received a large army of new settlers during the past few months. From South Dakota, also, come reports of the setting in of a tide of new agricultural population. The facts about farming in this region are, that while a man who hires all his labor and tries to work a large amount of land and live like a man of means is very likely to become bankrupt, the man who tills the soil with his own hands and lives economically, gets ahead year by year. The prosperous farmers, however, long ago found out that it is not safe to bank on one crop. They raise wheat regularly, but they raise something else and always have a few head of cattle to sell in the fall and a few hogs to convert into pork. There is more hard work done by farmers now than there used to be in the flush times, and there is less sitting around the country taverns and stores telling stories and smoking ten-cent cigars; but no level-headed, thrifty, industrious farmer is getting behind because of the hard times. On the contrary, the whole bulk of farm mortgages in our northwestern states is being steadily reduced, and this fact tells the story of the actual condition of our agricultural classes.

False Teeth Seized in a Raid.

The metropolitan specials, as is well known, have a peculiar way of raiding places. When examinations are made to find liquor or gambling layouts they go in large bunches and seize almost everything. The articles accumulated from these raids would make a curiosity shop and some of them could be put in a museum as things of more than ordinary interest. When a gambling place is raided it is the general belief that only the articles used in gambling are seized. This idea is erroneous, for there is now at the station a set of false teeth taken by one of the specials from a King street place. The teeth are knocking around the station and have not so far proved attractive enough for any one to claim them. They were, perhaps, never be claimed and in the absence of a pair of jaws they cannot speak for themselves. It is believed that the special who seized the teeth was acting up to a high moral sense of duty and thought that, perhaps, they had been used in calling out: "Feed the pig," which is a technical expression used in the game. Some man who visited the place with the expectation of losing his money must feel that it is very hard luck to lose his teeth also.—Charleston News.

Too Late to Discuss.

Mrs. Goode—My poor man, do you know that if you would not take the first drink of whisky the rest of them would not harm you?

Dismal Dawson—I don't exactly see what you're gitt'n at, lady, but, anyway, I've done took it already.

Got the Information.

Mrs. Hayfork—Anything for me? Rural Postmaster—I don't see nothin'.

Mrs. Hayfork—I was expectin' a letter or postal from Aunt Sally Spriggs, tellin' what day she was comin'.

Rural Postmaster (calling to his wife)—Did ye see a postal from Mrs. Hayfork's Aunt Sally, tellin' what day she was comin'?

His Wife—Yes; she's comin' Thursday.—Bay City Chat.

Lucky for Him That She Didn't.

"See here!" said the wife of his bosom, "let this be the last time you come home after midnight. There's no necessity for it and I have set my face against it. Is that plain enough to you?"

He gazed at her long and critically. "It is," he murmured.

And she never caught on.

Many lives of usefulness have been cut short by neglect to break up an ordinary cold. Pneumonia, bronchitis, and even consumption can be averted by the prompt use of One Minute Cough Cure. C. D. Stevens.

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritant to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of the sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities, and to force out poisonous refuse matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action, and yet it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred ailments. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who tries to sell you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine.

Election Notice.

OFFICE OF CITY CLERK, October 24, 1896.

To the Electors of the City of Janesville:

Notice is hereby given that a special election is to be held in the several wards and election precincts in the city of Janesville on the third day of November, 1896, at which the officers named below are to be chosen. The names of the candidates for each office to be voted for, whose nominations have been certified to this office, are given under the appropriate party or other designation, each in its proper column, and the questions submitted to a vote are stated below:

Information to Voters.

The following instructions are given for the information and guidance of voters: A voter upon entering the polling place, and giving his name and residence, will receive a ballot from the ballot clerk, which must have endorsed thereon the names or initials of both ballot clerks, and no other can be used. Upon receiving his ballot, voter must retire, alone, to a booth or compartment, and prepare the same for voting. A ballot clerk may inform the voter as to the proper manner of marking a ballot, but he must not advise or indicate in any manner whom to vote for. The voter if he wishes to vote for all the candidates nominated by any party, should make a cross mark, X, under the party designation printed at the top of the ballot in the square made for that purpose. A ballot so marked and having no other mark, will be counted for all of the candidates of that party in the column underneath, unless the names of some of the candidates of the party have been erased and will be counted for all names written in lieu of one erased, or pasted over a printed name. If the voter wishes to vote for some of the candidates of different political parties he should make a cross mark, X, after the name of each candidate he does desire to vote for. If he wishes to vote for a person for a certain office, whose name is not on the ballot, he must write the name in the blank space under the printed name of the candidate for the office. The ballot should not be marked in any other manner. If the ballot be spoiled it must be returned to the ballot clerk, who must issue another in its stead, but not more than three in all to any one voter. Five minutes' time is allowed in booth to mark ballot. Unofficial ballots or memorandum to assist the voter in marking his ballot can be taken into the booth and may be used to copy from. The ballot must not be shown so that any person can see how it has been marked by the voter. After it is marked it should be folded so that the inside cannot be seen, but so that the printed endorsements and signatures of the ballot clerks on the outside may be seen. Then the voter should pass out of the booth, give his name to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, hand him his ballot to be placed in the box and pass out of the voting place. A voter who declares to the presiding officer that he is unable to read, or that by reason of physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot, can have assistance of one or two election officers in marking the same, to be chosen by the voter. The presiding officer may administer an oath, in his discretion, as to such person's disability. The party designations and candidates for the different offices are as follows:

Democratic Ticket.

Republican Ticket.

MUNICIPAL TICKET.

For Justice of the Peace..... LAFAYETTE PATTEN.....

ships, Stark county, and to the Canton women and school girls.

Maj. McKinley never looked better or seemed healthier than he did Sunday. The day brought an innovation for the campaign, a Sunday delegation. The party, 100 in number, was from Detroit, Mich., sent as the representatives of the First-Voters' club of 1,500 members of that city. No demonstration was made.

John P. Irish Follows Bryan.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—One of the most exciting as well as intensely interesting features of this sensational campaign occurred to-day, when William J. Bryan, in his rapid flight through Nebraska, was closely followed by John P. Irish of California. Soon after Mr. Bryan started upon his trip the special train carrying Irish and the flower of the gold-standard democracy of Nebraska followed him closely.

Fatal Political Quarrels.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Nov. 2.—Both political parties had demonstrations in the mining town of Duryea Saturday night, and excitement ran high. There were many quarrels between the opposing forces. Frank Bronski, a Polish republican, quarreled with some of his countrymen. Sunday his dead body was found in a ditch. The skull had been crushed. His assailants had evidently used a heavy club. John Luby and Andrew Drotski, slaves, fought in a bar-room. Luby drew a big knife and stabbed Drotski in the abdomen. Seized with remorse, Luby drew the knife across his own throat. The attending physicians say Luby's death is only a question of time.

Approve Gallieni's Methods.

Paris, Nov. 2.—General Gallieni's summary methods in Madagascar are receiving uniform approval here. There is not a single reproach from any paper. The Gaulois says: "Brave Gallieni." Figaro says: "At last we have a man of action and not a talker." Le Paris hopes that his sound attitude will be persisted in. The Matin approves, with equal warmth. The Debats is more reserved, but entirely approves.

Will Stick to Palmer.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 2.—State Secretary Jared How and National Committeeman F. W. M. Cutcheon have given to the press a statement denying emphatically and specifically that they have deserted Palmer and Buckner, and are intending to support McKinley and Hobbs.
